JURY DEMAND

Michael N. Milby, Clerk of Court

COMPLAINT FOR DENIAL OF SHORT TERM AND LONG TERM
DISABILITY BENEFITS

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW MICHAEL A. KELLEY, Plaintiff, by and through his attorney, Sam A. Westergren, complaining of Standard Insurance Company & Koch Industries, Inc., Defendants and would show the Court as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Michael A. Kelley, Sr., Plaintiff, brings this action to recover damages and for equitable relief under the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq., including 29 U.S.C. § 1140, to redress the actions of defendants in denying Plaintiff his right to compensation under that certain self insured plan for Short Term Disability which is funded by defendant Koch Industries, Inc., and administered by defendant Standard Insurance Company, and also denying Plaintiff his rights to Long Term Disability under an contract of insurance underwritten by defendant Standard Insurance Company and under which Plaintiff is a beneficiary.

2. Plaintiff also seeks compensatory and punitive damages for breach of contract, misrepresentation, breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing and violations of the Texas Insurance Code and Texas Deceptive Practices Act, under the laws of the State of Texas.

JURISDICTION

3. Jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims are conferred on this Court pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132 & 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and the Plaintiff requests the Court to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

VENUE

4. Venue is proper in the Southern District of Texas, Corpus Christi Division, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §1132 (e) (2) in that the breach of the insurance contracts in issue occurred in Corpus Christi, Texas where Plaintiff resides and received his Short Term Disability payments until June 5, 2003.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff is, and at all times relevant to this action was a participant in and beneficiary of the Short Term Disability Plan, funded by Koch Industries, Inc. (hereafter "Koch), and administered by Standard Insurance Company (hereafter "Standard) and the Long Term Disability Plan, solely underwritten by Standard. It is alleged that both of said contracts are employee benefit plans as defined by 29 U.S.C. § 1002(7).

At this time, and at the time his causes of action arose, Plaintiff is and was a resident and domiciliary of Corpus Christi, Texas.

6. Koch is a corporation with it principal place of business being in Wichita, Kansas; its address is 4111 E. 37th Street North, Wichita, Kansas 67220. Standard is an insurance corporation with its principal place of business being in Portland, Oregon; its address is 900 SW Fifth Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97204. Standard and Koch are employers engaged in an industry or activity affecting commerce within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 1002(5), (12). However, the primarily responsible defendant is Standard who is both the plan co-sponsor with Koch for the Short Term Disability Plan, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(16)(A), and administers the Short Term Disability Plan, 29 U.S.C. 1002(16)(B). Standard is the underwriter and insurer of the Long Term Disability Plan and has sole responsibility for same.

7. The two contracts of insurance disability benefits, the Short Term Disability Plan and the Long Term Disability Plan should be read in pari materia. Because of Plaintiff's covered disability under both Disability Plans is permanent, when the contract term for his benefits under the Short Term Plan concluded, which would have occurred on or about August 17, 2003, then Plaintiff's disability benefits under the Short Term contract would have merged with and poured over into the Long Term Disability Plan.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. Plaintiff, as a former employee of Koch Industries, later of Koch subsidiary Flint Hills Resources, was covered under said disability plans if he should become unable to work at his job at Flint Hills Resources. His job at Flint Hills Resources was a Refinery Production Specialist and his duties included opening and closing large valves for dangerous petroleum products, climbing high storage tanks, bending and lifting and maintaining constant vigilance of the dangers of volatile petroleum products.

9. Prior to January of 2003, Plaintiff became permanently disabled within the meaning of the Short Term Disability Plan, which defines total disability as follows:

“..You are Disabled, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of your own Occupation.

10. Plaintiff submitted medical evidence of multiple medical conditions, documented by medical doctors which rendered him disabled and unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of his Occupation at Flint Hills. Plaintiff is a veteran, having served honorably in the United States Army. The Veterans Administration determined, that as of January 27, 2003 that Plaintiff was “unable to secure or follow a substantially gainful employment”.

11. The Veterans’ Administration determination of unemployability and disability was also based upon service-connected disabilities. However, in spite of his physical conditions and the difficulties Plaintiff encountered in doing his job as a Refinery Production Specialist, all of his medical and physical conditions finally caught up with after having worked at Koch Industries/Flint Hills Resources from 1990 through January of 2003.

12. Based upon medical information furnished Standard by Plaintiff, the great majority of which emanated from medical doctors and other health care providers treating Plaintiff at the Veterans’ Administration in Corpus Christi and San Antonio, Defendant Standard paid Plaintiff Short Term Disability Benefits in the net weekly amount of $491.00 through June 5, 2003. In spite of the voluminous medical documentation furnished by Plaintiff and which Standard accepted without question, which medical evidence corroborated that Plaintiff was unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of his own Occupation, Standard, on or about June 17, 2003, notified Plaintiff that all disability payments would be terminated. This notification was without medical justification or cause, and was arbitrary and capricious. Plaintiff has exhausted all administrative remedies he may have had to contest Standard's decision at issue, thereby leaving him no choice but to file this lawsuit.

13. By the terms of the Short Term Disability Plan, Plaintiff contractual benefits under said plan would have expired on or about August 17, 2003. However, at that time, Plaintiff was eligible for Long Term Disability Benefits. The Definition of Disability in the Long Term Disability Insurance Plan is as follows:

"..The definition of DISABILITY changes after LTD BENEFITS have been paid for 12 month.

1. Until LTD BENEFITS have been paid for 12 months, you are only required to be DISABLED from your own occupation.

You are DISABLED from your own occupation if, as a result of SICKNESS, ACCIDENTAL BODILY INJURY or PREGNANCY, you are EITHER

- a. Unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own Occupation; OR
- b. Unable to earn more than 80% of your INDEXED PREDISABILITY EARNINGS while working in your own occupation.

Until LTD BENEFITS have been paid for 12 months, you will be considered DISABLED while working in another occupation if you are DISABLED from your own occupation. There is no limit on the amount you can earn from work in another occupation while you are DISABLED from your own occupation. One-half the amount of your earnings will be INCOME FROM OTHER SOURCES used the reduce the amount of your LTD BENEFIT.

2. After LTD BENEFITS have been paid for 12 months, you must be disabled from all occupations.

You are DISABLED from all occupations if, as a result of SICKNESS, ACCIDENTAL BODILY INJURY or PREGNANCY, you are EITHER:

- a. Unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of any gainful occupation for which you are reasonably fitted by education, training, and experience; OR

- b. Unable to earn more than 60% of your INDEXED PREDISABILITY EARNINGS while working in your own or any other occupation.

14. Under the provisions of the Long Term Disability Policy, if disabled as defined above, and Plaintiff alleges that he is entitled to full disability as defined in the Long Term Disability Policy. Accordingly, under the terms of this contract of insurance, Standard is contractually bound to pay Plaintiff Long Term Disability Benefits until he reaches the age of 65. Plaintiff's date of birth is May 12, 1961. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to receive Long Term Disability Benefits until May 11, 2026.

FIRST COUNT
ERISA VIOLATION

15. Paragraphs 1 through 14 are repeated and realleged the same as though pleaded herein in full.

16. Standard's termination of Plaintiff's Short Term Disability Benefits and Koch's alleged approval thereof was done without justification or excuse in violation of the provisions of ERISA.

17. The primary justification and reasons for terminating Plaintiff's benefits were those of Standard in that by terminating Plaintiff's Short Term Disability Benefits they were able to prevent Plaintiff's Short Term Disability Benefits from being merged into and poured over into the Long Term Disability contract of insurance, thereby removing Plaintiff's claim as a liability of Standard's. Thus, by eliminating Plaintiff's claim, Standard was empowered to lessen its reserve requirements for Plaintiff's claim by an amount in excess of $500,000, thereby freeing up funds for investments and thereby increasing its profits.

SECOND COUNT
BREACH OF CONTRACT, BREACH OF THE DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND

FAIR DEALING AND VIOLATIONS OF THE TEXAS INSURANCE CODE
AND TEXAS DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT

18. Paragraphs 1 through 17 are repeated and realleged the same as though pleaded herein in full.

19. Standard is also liable for making representations to Plaintiff that he had a valid claim and that his medical records supported his disability. Even though Plaintiff is in fact disabled, and his medical records support disability, Standard denied Plaintiff's Short Term Disability Claim not for medical reasons or lack of supporting medical documentation, but only to avoid liability under the Long Term Disability Policy it has underwritten under which it was contractually obligated to pay Plaintiff until May 11, 2026.

20. Such actions by Standard constitute, under the laws of the State of Texas, breach of its Long Term Disability Insurance Contract, breach of its duty of good faith and fair dealing and constitute unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of § 541.003 of the Texas Insurance Code and in violation of §17.46 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code. Sixty (60) days notice under §17.505 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code was not practicable due to the fact that the two year statute of limitations starts to run on or about June 17, 2003.

21. As a result of Standard's misrepresentations, fraudulent and deceptive acts and practices, in violation of Texas law, Plaintiff has suffered a severe loss of income, resulting in compensatory damages, including economic damages and emotional pain and mental anguish and suffering.

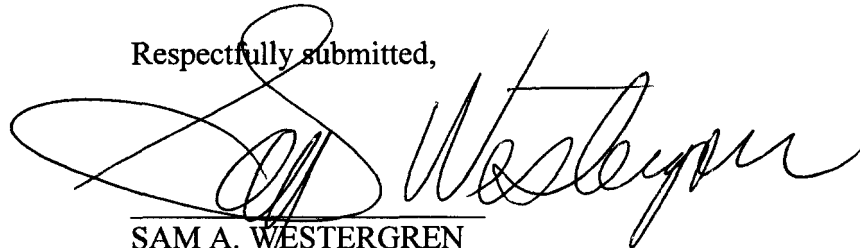

22. Plaintiff alleges that under the facts and circumstances of this case and pending discovery he should be awarded punitive damages against Standard.

PRAYER

Plaintiff requests that this Court exercise jurisdiction over these claims and award:

1. Full legal and equitable relief under ERISA, including restoration of all of Plaintiff's Short Term Disability Benefits plus reinstating and/or establishing Plaintiff's rights as a beneficiary under the Long Term Disability Plan at issue with Standard;
2. Alternatively, Plaintiff requests that the Court decide under the principle of anticipatory breach that the total amount, discounted under the applicable rates, due under the Long Term Disability Policy be awarded to Plaintiff against Standard in an amount in excess of $500,000;
3. Compensatory damages;
4. Punitive damages;
5. Attorney's fees and costs; and
6. All other relief that the law and equity allow.
